A rich man had only one son. The son had some bad friends. He began to act badly. The man was worried about his son. He tried his best to change his son's bad behaviors, but he could not succeed. One day, he thought of a plan to teach his son a lesson. He went to the market and purchased some fresh apples and an old one. He came back home and called his son. He asked him to put the fresh apples with the old one in one basket.

After some days, the father asked his son to bring the apples. The son was surprised that all the apples had become bad. He felt sad. At this point, his father told him that one bad apple had spoiled all the rest. In the same way, one bad friend could spoil all others. The father's advice had the desired effect. The boy listened to his father's advice. He gave up bad friends and became a good boy.
