- Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

No wonder that salt has many uses in our life. It is added to food, pickle and fish. Many people prefer salty dishes than sweet ones. Despite the side effects of adding too much salt in some dishes on our health, still many people like it. But have you ever asked yourself about the time and the place where it was first discovered and used.

In fact, we don't know when man first began to use salt, but we do know that it has been used in many different ways throughout the history. People who lived over 3000 years ago ate salted fish. Thousands of years ago in Egypt, salt was used to embalm the dead and keep their bodies for a long time.

In the 18th century, for instance, if a person was caught stealing salt, he could be put in jail. About 150 years ago, taking more salt than once was considered a crime. The criminals ear was cut off for the crime of stealing salt. In the Roman Empire, one of the most important road was the one that carried salt from the salt mines to Rome. Guards were kept along the road to protect it from thieves.
